

Executive Proclamation

State of South Dakota

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be applied to Susan Bogen; and,

Whereas, On October 12, 2012, Sue will be retiring from the Department of Labor and Regulation (DLR) after 26 years of service to the state of South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Sue has served as manager of the Watertown DLR Local Office for the last 11 years. She started her service with the Department as a job service representative; and,

Whereas, Sue consistently demonstrated a genuine interest in her staff and the public she served in Watertown. Her conscientiousness, ideas, and knowledge have served the Department well; and,

Whereas, Sue will be missed for her caring and engaging demeanor, extensive vocabulary, warm and frequent laughter, and dry wit paired with intelligent humor; and,

Whereas, Sue looks forward to enjoying her retirement in Wisconsin and spending more time with her children and grandchildren. She will also remain a committed, die-hard Minnesota Twins fan; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim October 12, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-fifth Day of September in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.

Dennis Daugaard
